THE BUSINESS OF CANNABIS

Cannabis In MA: New Regulations And What Is On The Horizon?

Bulkley Richardson invites you to a new series of events from professionals for professionals ("P4P") within Massachusetts' cannabis industry. We envision a forum where stakeholders in the cannabis industry, including lawyers, accountants, bankers, investors, insurance agents, consultants and other professionals, can discuss the evolving cannabis landscape, share information and work in unison to assist business growth.

BRITTE MCBRIDE

Britte McBride will provide an overview of the Cannabis Control Commission's regulations, including recent updates that took effect in November, and talk about current events and what may be on the horizon in the cannabis space.
