

Partner Bio: Stephen L. Holstrom

Practice Areas

- Litigation
- Professional Malpractice

sholstrom@bulkley.com

413-272-6233

Bio

Stephen Holstrom is a litigator with a focus on medical malpractice defense.

Steve has litigated tort actions, unfair and deceptive trade actions against insurance companies, no-fault personal injury protection (PIP) benefit collection actions, complex class actions and managed care fraud cases.

Previously, Steve was also a judicial law clerk to the Judges of the Connecticut Superior Court in Hartford, where he assisted with complex matters at every stage of litigation.

While at Western New England University School, Steve served as the Topic Development Editor of the Western New England Law Review.

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts

Connecticut

District of Massachusetts

United States First Circuit Court of Appeals

Education

University of Massachusetts, Lowell, B.A., cum laude, 2008

Western New England University School of Law, J.D., cum laude, 2011

Honors

- Honored as 2024 class of 40 Under Forty by BusinessWest
- Recognized in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch® in America 2024 for work in Education Law and Professional Malpractice Law
- Selected to Super Lawyers 2023 – 2024
- Selected to Super Lawyers Rising Stars 2019 – 2021
- Recipient of the CALI Award for Excellence in Federal Courts & Jurisdiction; Federal Litigation: Pension Rights; Medical Malpractice; Civil Rights: Police Misconduct; and Legislative Advocacy & Lobbying

Affiliations

Steve's advocacy has been featured in many articles of Massachusetts Lawyers' Weekly.

Currently, he remains active in the legal community as the Chair of the New Lawyers' Section of the Hampden County Bar Association, and is also a member of the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys. He serves on the Board of Directors of The Gray House, Inc., a social services organization in Springfield's North End.