Bio

Lisa Harty focuses her practice on representing health care professionals in medical malpractice matters. She combines her expertise both as a medical doctor and an attorney to understand her clients' cases and develop the strongest defense possible. She also regularly represents health care professionals before their boards of registration. In addition, Lisa advises clients on regulatory, licensing, and other issues related to the health care field.

Prior to joining the firm, Lisa was a judicial intern for the Honorable Mark Mastroianni and the Honorable Karen Goodwin. She was also an internal medicine resident at St. Agnes Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.
